

Architect Peter Bastian wanted his handle to make a dignified impact on tall, large-format doors despite being pared down to an almost doctrinaire degree. The result is a very neatly designed lever handle that offers the hand plenty of squareness to get hold of.

Recommended rose/backplate variants

EN 179

Design: Peter Bastian

EN 179 model: FSB 1002

Wide-backplate set to order

* restrictions for some variants

surface-mtd

flush-fitted*

