

There are a plethora of wedge-shaped handles around. Almost every company makes its own version of this basic form. The original design of this lever handle is most probably attributable to Professor Max Burchartz. The FSB 1005 design by Johannes Potente is characterised by its slender proportions.

Recommended rose/backplate variants

* restrictions for some variants

surface-mtd

flush-fitted*

