

This is a lever handle design that became “really famous” during the heyday of colour in the 1970s. For many student architects from those days this model sums up the architecture of the age.

Recommended rose/backplate variants

EN 179

* restrictions for some variants

surface-mtd

flush-fitted*

